Trip Notes

The travel for this adventure will be operated by Flight Centre.

B=Breakfast L=Lunch D=Dinner

Day 1, Saturday 20 October 2012

Australia – Peru

The adventure has begun! Due to crossing the International Date Line, you depart and arrive on the same day. On arrival at Lima Airport you take an early morning flight over the Andes that brings you to Cusco, where you are met by your guide and transferred to your hotel in central Cusco. Today is for acclimatisation to the altitude of the Andes (3,240m). Ensure you drink plenty of liquids and take it easy. After lunch in a typical local restaurant, we take a short walk through central Cusco in the afternoon.

Meals: L, D

Day 2, Sunday 21 October 2012

Peru's Challenge School

Today we visit the Peru's Challenge site just outside Cusco and have a first-hand experience of project work in Peru. We enjoy lunch with the project workers and some of their beneficiaries before returning to Cusco in the late afternoon.

Meals: B, L

Day 3, Monday 22 October 2012

Cusco and Pisac

Spend another day exploring Cusco and the Sacred Valley, learning about the Inca heritage of Peru. As today's touring takes you to 3,650m, it's also the perfect way to continue to acclimatise to the altitude and prepare yourself for the trek ahead. Leave Cusco early in the morning for the picturesque village of Pisac, famous for its markets and artisan stalls. Shop or visit the extensive Inca ruins at the top of the hill, taking a hike along a well-defined route through royal buildings, look-outs, terraces, tunnels and irrigation channels. After a picnic lunch we head back to Cusco, exploring some of Cusco's outlying Inca sites en route including Tambo Machay, Qenqo and the ruins of Sacsayhuaman.

Meals: B, L

Day 4, Tuesday 23 October 2012

Cusco – Quishuarani

Today we commence our 4-day trek through the beautiful Lares Valley, an alternative to the Inca Trail with fewer crowds and some dramatic scenery. Departing Cusco early we descend into the Sacred Valley before heading high into the Andes. We begin our hike up an ancient Inca trail, through a narrow canyon where Inca burial tombs can still be seen. From here there is the option to continue walking or meet our bus further up the valley and transfer over a 4,200m pass to the small community of Quishuarani to set up camp for the night.

Trek distance: 8km

Meals: B, L, D

Day 5, Wednesday 24 October 2012

Quishuarani – Cuncani – Huacahuasi

We begin the day's hike with a climb out of the Quishuarani valley. We are likely to meet some local people in their brightly coloured garb and throughout the day will have the chance to barter for beautiful handmade textiles. Our trekking path today also traverses the native tree reforestation project of ECOAN. This restored ecosystem is home to several bird species common in the area. We descend past some spectacular waterfalls and crystal clear lakes to the small village of Cuncani, where we meet our support vehicle for lunch. The afternoon has many options: either a short walk over the ridge to the village of Huacahuasi or a scenic hike to the Lares hot springs, before transferring by support vehicle to our camp on the Huacahuasi football pitch.

Trek distance: 18 km

Meals: B, L, D

Day 6, Thursday 25 October Huacahuasi – Patacancha

Today we set off for our final challenge – to climb over a 4,100m pass and descend towards the Sacred Valley of the Incas. We take it slow and steady, stopping to admire the beautiful lakes, arriving at the pass just before lunch. Admire the spectacular views of the snowy Mount Veronica and perhaps get a glimpse of a soaring condor, before descending along an old mule trail to the village of Patacancha. Our support vehicle will meet us here and take us to Huilloc where we set up camp on a field just outside the village. Huilloc is famous as the breeding ground for Inca Trail porters and the traditional Andean way of life is still evident here. Quechua is the dominant language and many of the local people still wear traditional dress. This is our last chance to barter for more fine weavings before finishing our trek.

Trek distance: 15 km

station for the afternoon train back to Ollantaytambo. From here we take a bus on to Cusco where we drop you off at the hotel.

Today begins with a short sharp climb to the impressive and rarely visited ruins of Pumamarca. After exploring this extensive site, we follow an ancient Inca trail along the many terraces of the Huilloc valley as we wind our way through eucalyptus forests to end our trail nearby the impressive ruins of Ollantaytambo. After lunch, we catch the late afternoon train to Aguas Calientes, our base for exploring Machu Picchu, and check into our hotel. The evening is free to explore the colourful artisan market and the many lively bars and restaurants.

Trek distance: 7km
Meals: B, L

Day 8, Saturday 27 October 2012 Machu Picchu – Cusco

A short bus ride brings you to Machu Picchu, 'the lost city of the Incas'. Your guide leads you on an extensive walking tour, explaining the fascinating history of the Incas. If time permits you may wish to explore further. There are a number of options – you could walk back up the Inca Trail to the sun gate or try the strenuous climb of Huayna Picchu for an awe-inspiring condor's eye view of Machu Picchu. We catch an afternoon bus back to Aguas Calientes for a late lunch and transfer to the train

Day 9, Sunday 28 October 2012 Cusco

Enjoy a free day in Cusco for some rest and recuperation. If you're feeling more active, there is no shortage of things to do in Cusco – from exploring Inca ruins to visiting colonial churches, bargain hunting in the local markets or whiling away the hours in a cafe. In the evening we meet up for celebratory dinner and those with the energy can go on to discover Cusco's excellent nightlife.

BLACK DOG INSTITUTE

About the Black Dog Institute

Of the one in five Australians who will experience a mood disorder in their lifetime, fewer than 50% seek professional help. The consequences are often tragic.

The Black Dog Institute's mission is to advance the understanding, diagnosis and management of mood disorders such as depression and bipolar disorder by raising clinical, research, education and training standards. In so doing, the Institute aims to improve the lives of those affected – and in turn – the lives of their families and friends.

The Black Dog Institute is an educational, research, clinical and community-oriented facility offering specialist expertise in mood disorders. The Institute is attached to the Prince of Wales Hospital and affiliated with the University of New South Wales.

Black Dog Institute Community Programs work with rural and metropolitan communities to raise awareness of mood disorders, their warning signs and how to seek help. Our presentations, workshops and events work to reduce stigma in communities and build resilience in individuals.

Refunds, Changes and Cancellation Fees:

We are unable to provide a refund to you until we receive the funds from the relevant supplier. Cancelled bookings will incur charges. These charges can be up to 100% of the cost of the booking, regardless of whether travel has commenced. Fees and extra charges will apply where a booking is changed. Fees and extra charges will also apply when tickets or documents are re-issued. Where we incur any liability for a cancellation fee or charge for any booking which you cancel, you agree to indemnify us for the amount of that fee or charge.

Some of the specific terms which apply if you cancel a tour or change your booking are as follows:

Cancellation Fees: If you wish to cancel your tour the following conditions apply:

- Your $400 travel deposit which is non refundable and non transferable will be forfeited;
- A $550 cancellation fee will be payable if cancellation occurs between 90-60 days prior to departure; and
- If cancellation occurs within 60 days prior to travel, all travel costs, including the deposit, will be forfeited.

Amendment Fees: If you wish to amend your travel arrangements the following conditions apply:

- A $50 amendment fee will be charged if travel arrangements are amended within 60 days prior to departure
- Name changes are not permitted after full payment has been made. It is your responsibility to ensure that the name on your itinerary matches the name on your passport; and
- Amendments to flights after full payment has been made will incur a fee of $200 per person plus any applicable difference in airfare charges and taxes.

Deposit and Final Payment:

You will be required to pay a $400 travel deposit at the time of booking. All deposits are non-refundable. Final payment is required no later than 60 days prior to departure unless otherwise stated. Some airfares or services must be paid in full at the time of booking.

Payments by Credit Card:

Credit card surcharges of 1.98% for Visa, Mastercard and American Express, and 3% for Diner's Club will apply when paying by credit card. If for any reason any travel service provider is unable to provide the services for which you have contracted, your remedy lies against that provider, and not against Flight Centre Limited. In the event that payment has been made to Flight Centre Limited by credit card, you agree that you will not seek to charge back your payment to Flight Centre Limited.

Payments by B-Pay:

Please note that BPAY takes up to 3 business days to process. If you are paying by this method you will need to make the payment at least 3 business days prior to the actual due date. You must notify your consultant of your payment once it has been made.

Payments by Cheque:

Please note that cheque payments (including bank cheques) require 5 business days to process. If you are paying by this method you will need to make the payment at least 5 business days prior to the actual due date. You agree not to stop payment of the cheque even when you cancel a booking. You agree that we may apply the proceeds of the cheque to satisfy any liability you have to us, including any liability in respect of cancellation fees, before refunding the balance to you.

Taxes:

Airline taxes are subject to change and are confirmed at the time your airline ticket is issued. There may also be a local tax charged at some airports.
