

North Coast Fundraising Walk 2012

Walker Information

Kicking goals for Opportunity International Australia!

- The goal for the 2012 walk is $20,000. This will give a hand up to approximately 350 microfinance clients, impacting the lives of around 1,750 family members (based on an average family size of five, after costs and leveraging of funds).
- We encourage all walkers to set a personal fundraising target of $200 which is approximately one small business loan.
- To read more about Opportunity International Australia, go to www.opportunity.org.au

Where

- Missingham Bridge Park, Kingsford Smith Drive, Ballina.
- Street parking is available in the area.
- The walk starts and finishes at Missingham Bridge Park. We will walk along Hill Street to Crompton Drive down to Lighthouse Parade and back to Missingham Bridge Park along the North Wall, twice.
- Collect a mud-map of the walk route at the check-in tent.

Timing

- Please arrive from 7.30 am to check-in.
- The walk sets off at 8.00am.
- We expect walkers to finish by approximately 10.00am.
- There will be a water break along Crompton Drive.

What to wear

- Comfortable walking shoes and clothes, hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

What to bring

- Water bottle, own snacks, backpack or bumbag for personal goods.
- Mobile phone (which has the phone number you provided on the Registration Form).

After walk celebration

- Please join other walkers for light refreshments in Missingham Bridge Park after the walk. Family and friends are welcome to join us.
